

Putting A Poem Back Together Puzzle

Put together words into part of a poem.
A clue: poem by Tupac Shakur.

crack                  from                  a                  in                  concrete you                  that                  rose about                  the                  grew                  hear                  Did                  the

---

---

---

---

---